

This complaint is filed by the complainant U/Sec. 12 of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019, praying this Commission to direct the Opposite Party (i) to compensate the complainant for the injuries sustained in the road accident caused by the Opposite Party's negligent driving; (ii) to reimburse medical expenses amounting to Rs. 50,000; (iii) to pay compensation for pain and suffering in the amount of Rs. 20,000; (iv) to bear the costs of the case and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Commission deems fit and proper. The complainant was involved in a road accident on a busy intersection when the Opposite Party, driving recklessly, collided with the complainant's vehicle. As a result, the complainant suffered significant injuries, requiring medical treatment, and was unable to attend work for several days. Keeping in view the above facts, we are of the considered opinion that the Opposite Party should be held liable for the accident and compensation should be awarded for the injuries and damages caused. Point No.2: In the result, the complaint is partly allowed and the Opposite Party is directed to (i) To pay compensation of Rs. 70,000 to the complainant for medical expenses and pain and suffering. (ii) To bear the costs of litigation incurred by the complainant in instituting this proceeding. Time for compliance is 60 days from the date of receipt of these orders, failing which the said amounts shall attract interest at the rate of 9% per annum until full realization.
